

Volume II includes the information that is necessary to complete the EA. This includes further detail on the EA process and methods used to undertake the assessment. There are six chapters describing the airport, the Authority, Airport Governance, the legislative framework within which the airport operates, the EA process being followed, and the communications and consultation program that was carried out as part of the CS. The project description provides details on the design and components which make up the construction and operation of the PRP.